CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCY APPLICATION – AMSA 426

Marine Safety (Domestic Commercial Vessel) National Law Act 2012
Marine Order 505 (Certificates of competency – national law) 2013

Guidance on how to use this form

You must respond to all questions and statements on this form and insert information in all boxes. If the information requested is unknown or not applicable insert N/A.

You can complete this form online or print and then complete by hand. You must click on Download pdf before printing. If you do not download a pdf version of the form there will be no barcode and Australia Post will not accept your application.

Please do not submit original documents with your application.

Proof of identity

Proof of identity is required when applying for a certificate of competency or seafarer's service book.

Proof of identity is necessary to protect your identity, as well as our certification system.

Documents submitted as part of your proof of identity must be originals. You must present your documents to Australia Post at the time of lodging your application. Find a participating Australia Post outlet.

Five identity options

You must choose one of these five identity document options:

Option 1

Submit the following:

- Your current passport

Option 2

Submit the following:

- Your current Australian driver's licence
- Your full Australian birth certificate or your Australian citizenship certificate

Option 3

Submit the following:

- A photographic identification document issued by an Australian Commonwealth, state or territory government agency
- Your current Australian Medicare card
- Your full Australian birth certificate or your Australian citizenship certificate

Option 4

Submit the following:

- Your current Australian Medicare card
- A current account card from a bank that shows your signature
- A proof-of-age card or student ID card that shows your photograph
- Your full Australian birth certificate or your Australian citizenship certificate

If the name on the identification documents (passport, driver's licence, birth certificate, or citizenship certificate, etc) does not match the name on your application form, you must submit a copy of a change of name document to show your official name change.

Option 5 - Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people born from 1969 onwards may be able to access their birth certificate through the births, deaths and marriages registry in the state or territory of their birth.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people born earlier than 1969 who do not have a birth certificate may be recorded in the Aboriginal Population Register available from the Northern Territory Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages. We will accept this document as equivalent to a birth certificate.

If an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person cannot provide proof of identity as required above, a completed Identity declaration for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person form 162 will be accepted as being equivalent to option 1 (current passport).
